THE JOLLY BEGGARMAN

C F G7
It's of a jolly beggarman came tripping o'er the plain

C F C G
He came unto a farmer's door alodging for to gain

C F G7
The farmer's daughter she came down and bade him cheek and chin

C F C G
She says, "He is a handsome man. I pray you take him in."

C F G7
We'll go no more a roving, a roving in the night

C F C G
We'll go no more a roving, let the moon shine so bright

C
We'll go no more a roving.

C F G7
He would not lie within the barn nor yet within the byre

C F C G
But he would in the corner lie down by the kitchen fire

C F
G7
O then the beggar's bed was made of good clean sheets and hay

C F C G
And down beside the kitchen fire the jolly beggar lay.

C F G7
The farmer's daughter she got up to bolt the kitchen door
C F C G
And there she saw the beggar standing naked on the floor
C F G7
He took the daughter in his arms and to the bed he ran
C F C G
Kind sir, she says, be easy now, you'll waken our Goodman.

C F G7
Now you are no beggar, you are some gentleman
C F C G
For you have stolen my maidenhead and I am quite undone
C F G7
I am no lord, I am no squire, of beggars I be one
C F C G
And beggars they be robbers all, so you're quite undone.

C F G7
She took the bed in both her hands and threw it at the wall
C F C G
Says go ye with the beggarman my maidenhead and all.
C F G7
We'll go no more a roving, a roving in the night
C F C G
We'll go no more a roving, let the moon shine so bright
